

The 42nd annual Angoulême International Comics Festival kicked off this morning with extra security, as is to be expected just three weeks after the attacks on the Charlie Hebdo offices. The president of last year's festival, and the winner of the previous year's Grand Prix d'Angoulême, was Willem, a staff cartoonist at Charlie Hebdo. He [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2015/01/angouleme-international-comics-festival-opens/>