

Fast on the heels of the impressive live-action fan trailer for Akira comes a stunning homage to another pioneering sci-fi anime: Designer/illustrator Ash Thorp brought together more than 30 artists for a live-action recreation of the opening of 1995's Ghost in the Shell using still photography. The result, the 39-frame Project 2501, is mind-blowing — [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/05/artists-recreate-ghost-in-the-shell-intro-with-still-photography/>