

Often when one runs across an engaging new series, it is fairly easy to identify the prime factor that serves as the appeal/pull for the project. In the case of Tooth & Claw, the new fantasy series (replete with talking animals and magic) by writer Kurt Busiek, artist Ben Dewey and colorist Jordie Bellaire, no [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/11/discerning-the-core-appeal-of-tooth-claw/>