

Surprising no one, CEO Bob Iger revealed Tuesday that Disney has plans for “a far greater Star Wars presence” at its theme parks. According to Entertainment Weekly, he promised that the sci-fi franchise would become one of Disney’s answer to Universal Studios’ Harry Potter attractions. Details are expected sometime next year. Disney, which purchased Lucasfilm [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/08/disney-teases-expanded-star-wars-presence-at-theme-parks/>