

In our current age of instant accessibility to an unimaginable library of entertainment, it's difficult to imagine the hold that broadcast television once had on the culture. In the 1970s, people stayed home on Saturday nights to watch the CBS comedy lineup of Mary Tyler Moore, Bob Newhart, and Carol Burnett. On Tuesdays, ABC had [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2015/01/grumpy-old-fan-no-foolin-dc-starts-converging-in-april/>