

When David and Deanna Gonzalez bought a fixer-upper in Elbow Lake, Minnesota, for $10,100, they never dreamed they'd find a treasure worth 10 times that amount hidden in an abandoned house. The Minneapolis Star Tribune reports that while demolishing a wall, David Gonzalez struck gold amid newspapers from the 1930s that had been used for [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2013/05/man-finds-copy-of-action-comics-1-in-wall-of-old-house/>