

The golem, an artificial being usually created from mud or clay and endowed with life, has appeared in stories of every media since ... well, since about the time people started telling stories, particularly if you consider the biblical first man Adam to be a form of golem ("And the Lord God formed man of [...])

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/02/niles-wachter-and-santoro-breathe-new-life-into-the-golem/>