

As the ever-growing Wizard World tour pulls into Minneapolis, Minnesota, this weekend, KARE TV shines a spotlight on the friction between the inaugural show and organizers of SpringCon, a 26-year-old annual event that's being held two weeks later. "We don't have William Shatner at $199 an autograph, we don't have the stars and that kind [...]"

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/04/tensions-resurface-as-wizard-world-arrives-in-minneapolis/>