

A Texas company has sued Harris County and its district attorney's office over high-priced comic books that were seized in an embezzlement case, only to be stolen by investigators. As you may recall, attorney Anthony Chiofalo was charged in January 2013 with siphoning from employer Tadano America upwards of $9.3 million, much of which he [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/12/texas-company-sues-das-office-over-stolen-comics/>