

Just in time for Banned Books Week, the Cleveland, Texas, city council declined to act on a local pastor's request that the public library remove all occult-themed books, including the wildly popular Vampire Knight manga series, from its young-adult room. As we previously reported, Rev. Phillip Missick of the King of Saints Tabernacle Church addressed [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/09/texas-library-rejects-challenge-to-vampire-books-dried-roses/>