

An original page of Tintin drawings signed by Hergé sold at auction Saturday in Paris for nearly $2.9 million, setting a new world record for comic art. Dating to 1937, the double-page spread featuring the boy reporter, Snowy and other characters (above) was created for the inside covers of Tintin books published between 1937 and [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/05/tintin-drawings-sell-for-2-9-million-setting-new-world-record/>