

“We conclude that the contract language is ambiguous and that genuine disputes of material fact, as to the parties’ intent and other issues, preclude the granting of judgment as a matter of law.” – from the 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals order vacating a 2011 ruling that writer Gary Friedrich had handed over the rights [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2013/06/we-conclude-that-the-contract-language-is-ambiguous/>