

If so, that impression was in his mind on that last day of 1807 when he was forty and played Surrey to Burr's Wolsey, exclaiming to the ravening crowd that Burr had "no religious principles, and little, if any sense of reverence to a moral Governor of the Universe." How could even an Adams purport [...]

Read more: <http://goodcomics.comicbookresources.com/2013/01/17/what-i-bought-16-january-2013/>