

“I play with life, you say, and that is true, but I play because it pleases me; whereas Christian virtues would bore me in a day, as does the philosophy of Seneca. Because of this, Paul’s eloquence is displayed in vain. He should understand that people like me will never accept his religion. With your [...]

Read more: <http://goodcomics.comicbookresources.com/2010/12/03/what-i-bought-2-december-2010/>