

SCIFI MEDIA ZONE: How did you prepare for the project in terms of research? STEPHEN: We went to the comic book store and read 70 years of comics. CHRISTOPHER: And after that, you face the main first question, which is are you going to do this modern day or are you going to do this period? I think very early on period seemed advisable. [laughs] SCIFI MEDIA ZONE: You laughed when you said that, and I'm just curious why you thought period was the way to go. CHRISTOPHER: Some superheroes aren't particularly identified with a nation, so it doesn't matter when their creation is set. Batman can be set any time, because, you know, bats are timeless. Dressing up as an American flag? Well, you've got to be a little... tactical... when you decide to have a person do that. If you have a person do that in the middle of Vietnam, he's one guy.
