

Thanks to the folks over at the blogspot Alien Prequel News, we now have our first description of the aliens used in Ridley Scott's prequel to the Alien Franchise titled Prometheus: Though security on the set is very tight with the good weather, dock doors have been open and cast and crew have been enjoying lunch outdoors. I can confirm seeing 3 aliens having lunch. Not the whole costume but blueish costumes and the unmistakable heads hanging around their shoulders. The alien heads were the same shape but no markings, only a plain bronze colour. As for the suits black boots and shoulder pads the rest was a Chelsea blue body suit could be for SFX, all the sets around the back of the bond stage have huge green chromakey maybe that's a clue. I have witnessed foam cut outs of unmistakable aliens all cut in half length ways so they could be in
