

Screen Rant caught up with Emma Stone while she was promoting her new movie The Help, where she talked about what the draw to playing Gwen Stacy in The Amazing Spider-Man was, as well as revealing that most of Gwen's involvement in the film is with Peter. "I was drawn to that part because I really liked what happens between Gwen and Peter and so I'm excited about that. That's pretty much what my involvement is, is with Peter, and I think Andrew is incredible so that was really wonderful for me. And then I'm also excited about — and this is kind of weird...Well, I guess it's not weird, but I think it's really interesting to be a part of something that so many people hold close to their hearts, that so many people grew up with. To get to like be involved in this world of passionate people." She also
