

While principal photography isn't set for a few weeks, signs have been posted in the financial district of New York City alerting civilians that filming for Marvel & Joss Whedon's highly-anticipated The Avengers movie is commencing. While the sign, via Samir, names the film "Group Hug", it's been confirmed that that would be the production title for the crossover extravaganza. While the degree of filming is unknown, primary filming for the Joss Whedon-directed flick is set for Albuquerque, New Mexico in the coming weeks. And soon after, in Cleveland, Ohio. And it was also announced that partial filming will occur at Grumman Studios, also located in New York City. And if you have any further info/images, feel free to Contact Us. Anyhow, Starring Robert Downey Jr., Chris Evans, Samuel L. Jackson, Chris Hemsworth, Clark Gregg, Scarlett Johansson, Cobie Smulders, Jeremy Renner, Mark Ruffalo, and additionally Stellan Skarsgård, and Tom Hiddleston, The

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/MarvelFreshman/news/?a=34888&:t=Filming\_For\_iThe\_Avengersi\_Occurring\_In\_New\_York