

Chatting lengthly with Collider's Steve 'Frosty' Weintraub in a video interview, the producer of Martin Campbell's highly-anticipated Green Lantern movie, Donald De Line speaks on various elements surrounding the film. From Parallax, Oa, CGI Costume, 3D, star Ryan Reynolds, and possibly getting a new trailer today, check out the fifteen-minute interview below. Pretty epic! So while it may not be a new trailer, what may arrive online today is portions of what was shown at WonderCon! What do you think? Anyhow, Warner Bros. has Green Lantern slated for theaters June 17, in 3D!
