

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/ActionFigureNews/news/?a=28630&t=INTERNATIONAL_Iguila_Rojal_The_Hit_Spanish_Superhero_Show_Gets_Adapted_To_Big_Screen

Aguila Roja is coming to the big screen after three successful years of crime fighting on Spanish TV. Its set in the 17th century revolving around a masked hero fighting against the corrupt and wrong. A new spin on Zorro but the production aesthetic has much in common with the likes of modern efforts like Spartacus. Águila Roja, La Película is released 22nd April 2011. Stars: William Miller, Antonio Molero, Martina Klein, Mariano Peña and José Ángel Egido. LEEE777 - Language is in Spanish so it'll be good if you know it but saying that it'll be just as good for everyone else once it hits DVD for a look.