

Below are just a few snippets from the video. "When Marcus originally came to me, they weren't interested in just making a remake. They were re imagining or reinventing this whole franchise by pulling from all the source material, eight decades of Conan material." "So I was reading the books and I went and studied panthers and big cats and lions. I saw the way they moved, how they stalked and how aggressive they were. They can move on a dime." "There's a lot of magic and sorcery in the Conan stories but they wanted to steer clear [of including] too much of that because of Clash Of The Titans. They have a little bit of the sorcery in there with Marique (Rose McGowan) but I'm sure in Conan 2 and 3 there's going to be a lot more of that." Conan The Barbarian directed by Marcus Nispel and starring Jason Momoa, Rose McGowan, Ron

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/GulfCoastAvengers/news/?a=37827&t=Jason_Momoa_Says_We_Can_Expect_More_Magic_In_Future_iConani_Films