

Here are the latest bunch of fan answered questions from the official X-Men: First Class Facebook page. To view that, and to read all of the "X-Perts" Q&A's, follow the link below. How similar is your version of Sebastian Shaw to the comics version? The main difference between Shaw in the comics and the character I play is the way he looks – he's just physically nothing like me! But the essence of the comics character is there. I based him on directly on all the comic book research I did. You've tackled many interesting and diverse roles in your career. What made you decide to take on the role of Shaw? It was a very quick decision. I loved the script, I wanted to work with Matthew Vaughn, it was a great part, and the cast is very strong. Along with Magneto, Shaw is one of the most interesting villains of the X

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=38145&t=Kevin_Bacon_And_Zoe_Kravitz_Answer_iX-Men_First_Classi_Fan_Questions