"If you take all of the effects out of the movie, you still have the basis for an entertaining and fascinating story.”  “This is the first that I’ve even thought about Bond,” responded the actor. “But it’s come up quite a bit, actually. You know, I love those movies and I grew up with those movies. They were very, very influential on me as a kid... If something feels kind of Bond-y, it was subconscious.”  X-Men: First Class hits theaters June 3rd.  Powered By Vistaprint
