In an interview with MTV News, Liam Hemsworth was quizzed about what it was like competing and auditioning for the same role alongside his own brother. As we all know, Chris ended up landing the part in Kenneth Branagh's Thor and 2012 epic, The Avengers and here's how the younger sibling felt about that. "At the time, I remember we both read for it, and I got flown over to do a screen test for it. I got flown for a screen test and he didn't and then, I mean, I didn't get it, but he got called back." The actor also went on to say that he could one day play a superhero as well. "Who knows what's going to happen?" What do you guys think? Did Marvel Studios make the right decision cast Liam's older brother? I sure think so, but be sure to share your thoughts in the usual place! Thor is
