In a brief interview with The Hollywood Reporter, the young actress talked a little more about the complexities of being transformed into Mystique and came up with a pretty unique way of describing it! She also discusses how she managed to keep her body in shape for such a revealing role. "Nothing's sacred anymore, those girls and I got so close. They were painting me naked every day for months. It was kind of like going to a really bizarre sleepover. It's what you guys imagine we do: One naked girl and seven pairs of hands all over her." "It was awful, I was hungry for five months. I'm still pissed about it. I'm slowly working my way back because I have to be able to eat like an asshole." X-Men: First Class is set to be released on June 3, later this year!
