We have already seen Karl Urban from the chest up as Dredd, helmet in full view. Now we have this new set pic featuring our first glimpse of the rest of the outfit as well as the Lawmaster. It's unknown if this is Urban as Dredd, as stunt double or a completely different Judge character. Dredd takes us to the wild streets of Mega City One, the lone oasis of quasi-civilization on Cursed Earth. Judge Dredd (Karl Urban) is the most feared of elite Street Judges, with the power to enforce the law, sentence offenders and execute them on the spot – if necessary. The endlessly inventive mind of writer Alex Garland and the frenetic vision of director Peter Travis bring Dredd to life as a futuristic neo-noir action film that returns the celebrated character to the dark, visceral incarnation from John Wagner and Carlos Ezquerra's revered comic strip.
