

Sighh, I miss the old black costume. It was a good time to be a Spidey fan. The t-shirt above is one of my favorites from the new batch of Marvel T-Shirts we got in but that's probably because I love that look on Spidey. Made from 100% Cotton, this soft, black t-shirt features Spiderman in his classic black, back-up threads outlined and filled with a thick, and very slightly distressed, white screen-print! When Spiderman first donned the Black costume in the 1980's, it was an overly parasitic symbiote looking for a warm body, a hot meal and a writhing soul. Since that partnership ended...poorly...Spiderman refused to wear the black duds, even those stitched together by his very own Spider-hands! Of course, as is natural with Spiderman, things..deteriorated. Remember the Civil War? Remember how making his identity public targeted those he loved? Remember when
