

The pics come from the latest issue of The Hollywood Reporter.. One outfit features Jones wearing a satiny push up bra, modified high-thigh boots (they can be worn outside, but also have the illusion of lacey thigh-highs on top) and a sheer cape with fur trim. Another has her in a simple, curve-hugging leather bodysuit. Indeed. Props to costume designer Samantha Sheldon for coming up with such an authentic and faithful look for The White Queen. And props for Miss Jones for wearing it so well:) By TwitterButtons.com
