The keen eyes of 'Loganbabe' from SuperHeroHype's forums, have spotted a couple disastrous set images from Matthew Vaughn's X-Men: First Class prequel. The movie currently filming, while in post-production was spotted shooting in Los Angeles this week, according 'MuscleNerd' via Twitter. The first image depicts of a 60s era car smashed by a boulder of some sort, while the second includes James McAvoy (Charles Xavier), Jennifer Lawrence (Mystique), Rose Byrne (Dr. Moira MacTaggart), as well the first look at Oliver Platt As 'The Man In Black.'
