

Most people are drooling with anticipation to see Anne Hathaway in the almost always sexy and form-fitting Catwoman outfit. Hollywoodlife.com has possibly the first details of what fans are in store for. It sounds like Nolan is once again bringing a more realistic approach to the character and I'm looking forward to seeing the first official photos. "Anne's outfit is more tactical, like the comic book, than the previous Batman movies," a source very close to the costume design tells us exclusively. "She will definitely be wearing the goggles and it's going to be less sexy than Halle Berry and Michelle Pfeiffer's Catwoman costumes. She's going to look more like a robber. Everything from the looks in her eyes, her head movements, her body—everything is so feline. The role is taking her to new places, the insider said." (Fan-made image) "The Dark Knight Rises" is scheduled for July 20, 2012 release across the United
