"The Dark Knight", the critically acclaimed box-office smash of 2008 is making it's way to television. "The Dark Knight" will premiere on TNT Saturday, January 22 at 8:00 PM Eastern time. It will also air an encore presentation at the same time on Sunday, the 23rd. "The Dark Knight", the successful follow-up to "Batman Begins", continues Director Christopher Nolan's story of Batman. In the film, Batman must take on his long time arch-nemesis: The Joker. The film was nominated for 8 Oscars: Best Supporting Actor-Heath Ledger (Won), Best Cinematography, Best Sound, Best Editing, Best Make-Up, Best Visual Effects, Best Sound Editing (Won), and Best Art Direction. Heath Ledger died in January of 2008, due to an accidental overdose of sleeping pills. The ending credits pay homage to Ledger, in what is strongly considered his best role. "The Dark Knight" stars: Christian Bale-Bruce Wayne/Batman Heath Ledger-The Joker Michael Caine-Alfred Pennyworth Aaron Eckhart-Harvey Dent Gary Oldman-Jim Gordon Maggie
