

Smallville is over. So what's to fill the void that after Clark goes off to Metropolis? Fans have had 10 years of foreplay, with no pay off, so we're wondering, which superhero could fill Kal-El's shoes on the TV screen; Wonder Woman or Batman? We'd love to see both, but we're thinking that, with the ridiculously low budgets assigned to TV, Wonder Woman fighting mythical beasts might look like something out of a 1970s Sinbad movie. Much cheaper to move to Gotham and film a brooding teen learning his way into becoming the World's Greatest Detective. But, how would they be envisioned? We're giving it a shot. Not that the studios listen to us but we laid out how we think these two shows should go if they ever decided to make them. Check it out at The Next Smallville: Batman or Wonder Woman? While you are on our site, click the
