

A month after the Vancouver Sun revealed that Warner Bros. Pictures and director Zack Snyder planned a winter shoot for Man of Steel on Vancouver Island, the Canadian Press has confirmed production will be moving their shortly and stay there through January 2012. Casting calls and filming for "Autumn Frost" — widely reported to be the code name for "Man of Steel...

Read more: http://www.mania.com/superman-heads-to-vancouver_article_131077.html