

This is it, the final episode before the season finale. Coming off one of the best episodes of the season there was no way to go but down but it did manage to set up the pieces for the finale next week. So here we go to the end of the line. Abraham and crew are on their way to Terminus...

Read more: http://www.mania.com/walking-dead-review_article_139455.html